

New Wave of Titoism Seen by Red Satellites

Yugoslav Leader Meets With Hungarian Communist Boss

LONDON (U)—Yugoslav President Tito and Hungarian Communist Party boss Erno Gero met today in Belgrade in the first of a new series of Communist satellite moves expected to touch off a wave of explosive Titoism in the Soviet empire.

In Warsaw the Central Committee of the Communist Party met this week in a determined mood to press ahead with removal of the Stalin influence — and possibly to adopt a more moderate line as result of the Poznan riot trials.

In Bucharest the Hungarian Communists prepared for the Tito meeting by "rehabilitating" former Premier Imre Nagy and frankly admitting the "personal prejudice" of former boss Matyas Rakosi, an enemy of Tito, had contributed to his downfall.

New Premier Seen

Reliable political sources in Vienna said Zoltan Szanto, former Hungarian minister to Belgrade and press chief of Nagy's cabinet, was expected to be named next premier of Hungary. Hungary's shaky economy will prevent Nagy from taking the post, the sources said.

Moscow was reported keeping a wary eye on the developments. Communist Party leader Nikita Khrushchev returned from Yalta where he saw Tito and other satellite leaders. And the authoritative Communist party organ "Kommunist" today assailed dogmatic Communists who refuse to recognize peculiarities and conditions of other Communist countries.

But the Tito-Gero meeting took precedence over other developments. Relations between the two nations have been cool since Hungary led the fight to expel Tito from the Cominform. Today's meeting was to prepare for a formal rapprochement, with emphasis on the political and economic fields.

Tito emerged from the Yalta talks as one of the key Communist figures in Europe, and there have been instructions from Moscow to the other satellites to co-operate politically more closely with Yugoslavia.

Coed is Killed in Traffic Accident

By United Press
At least 13 persons were killed in traffic accidents during the weekend in Illinois.

A Western Illinois State College coed was killed Sunday and three of her companions were injured when their car failed to make a curve on Ill. 36 near Adair and crashed into a ditch and overturned.

Killed was Sylvia Sastorou, 18, of Elmhurst. Injured were Betty Beahl, 17, Carol Maloney, 18, and Rose Marie Burns, 19, all of Springfield.

Adlai, Kefauver Concentrate Blasts On Nixon; Ike to Kick Off TV Talks

By United Press
Adlai E. Stevenson read a detailed attack against Vice President Richard M. Nixon today to be concentrated against the "public distrust" of the President's running mate.

Sen. Estes Kefauver also jumped on the "lay-into-Nixon" bandwagon. In a speech prepared for delivery in Burlington, Vt., he charged that a "disguised" Republican vice president "is trying to get into the White House on false premises, a false front and a false face."

President Eisenhower, bolstered by tributes on his 66th birthday, kicks off today a series of staccato TV talks. A special series of five-minute GOP campaign talks will be televised during the concluding five minutes of popular TV shows.

C. F. Gidcumb Is Observing 50 Years of Furniture Business Here

C. F. Gidcumb this year reached the fifty-year milestone as a furniture store owner and operator in Harrisburg.

Mr. Gidcumb, whose store is on the east side of the square, came to Harrisburg with his wife more than 50 years ago, coming here from Rudement with only $10 in his pocket—$10 he received by selling his horse.

He found Harrisburg a thriving community, but had no paved streets and the sidewalks were made of wood.

The best job he could find was accepted and it paid him 75 cents a day at the Woolcott Milling Co.

Later he worked for the Baker and Small furniture establishment, where Mr. Small sold him his interest in the firm with no down payment, only a promise to pay, which he did.

When this partnership was dissolved, Mr. Gidcumb opened his furniture store in the old Elder building at Church and Main streets where the Humm and Reynolds service station now stands. Later the store was moved to East Poplar street.

Shortly after the post office was moved from the east side of the square, Mr. Gidcumb took over the space that is his present location.

Although the one street-level room has expanded to include a basement and two upstairs spaces, plus the large warehouse east of the city hall, Mr. Gidcumb remarked that in spite of the many changes that have taken place since he started in business, his rule of 1906 is the same today—"Keep your customers satisfied."

Mr. Gidcumb's son, Wayne, and his son-in-law, Paul Hays, the husband of his daughter, Essie, are in the furniture business with him here. Another son, Don, has a furniture store at Carmi and a son, Charles, is a pharmacist at Anna state hospital.

Two Color Advertising in Today's Register

The first regular newspaper run of two-color advertising in Harrisburg is inaugurated in The Daily Register today.

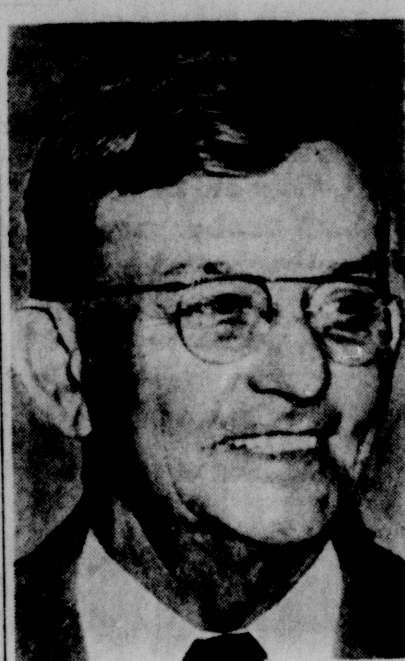

The occasion is jointly the Golden anniversary of the C. F. Gidcumb furniture store and completion of installation of the new newspaper press, which was put into operation in June.

Use by Gidcumb of the two-color advertisement is somewhat of a coincidence. The two-color arrangement on The Daily Register's new press was not installed with the press, and was not attempted until the mechanical department became better acquainted with regular operation of the press.

Plans were made about two weeks ago to install the color attachment and about that time Mr. Gidcumb inquired if our previously announced color process would be available for advertising his fiftieth anniversary as a Harrisburg business concern.

Considerable effort above the ordinary work required for printing a newspaper is required for two colors. Two plates must be made and as they go through the press, with one printing in one color on one plate and one printing in black on a plate on an adjoining unit, it is difficult to keep them in register so the two impressions will coincide.

It is possible to print the extra color only on the front or back page.

Two Lawsuits Seek Damages in Circuit Court

Two lawsuits seeking damages as a result of motor vehicle crashes were on file today in Saline county circuit court.

In one, Asa N. Mitchell of Harrisburg seeks $25,000 damages from Louise Freedle, administratrix of the estate of her deceased husband, George Kenneth Freedle.

The complaint, filed by Atty. D. F. Rumsey, says that Mitchell was a passenger in Freedle's car when it crashed on Route 34 in Johnson county last Aug. 11.

The complaint charges that Freedle was driving at a high rate of speed while under the influence of alcohol when the crash occurred. Freedle was fatally injured.

Mitchell suffered a broken pelvis, broken nose, broken ribs and other injuries, the complaint states.

In another lawsuit, filed by Davis and Phillips of Shawneetown, Donald Lee Smith and his father, Ralph K. Smith, seek a total of $11,305 damages from W. T. Pearce as a result of an incident occurring in front of the Grove Inn on Route 13 east of Harrisburg Oct. 23, 1954.

Young Smith seeks $10,000 for injuries and his father $1,305 in damages. The youth was in a car belonging to his father.

The complaint says Smith was driving toward Harrisburg about 6:30 p. m. and that a car driven by Pearce pulled out of the Grove parking area onto the highway. It states Smith swerved to avert a collision and ran into a ditch, his car overturning.

Autos Collide On Highway 45

Two automobiles collided at 11 p. m. Saturday on Route 45 at the Wesson road between Harrisburg and Eldorado, State Policeman Arthur Athmer reported today.

He said that a car driven by Charles Gwaltney of Harrisburg Route 45 pulled onto Route 45 into the path of a vehicle driven northward by Earl Eugene Gass of Eldorado. In the car with Gwaltney were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Osborn Gwaltney.

There were no serious injuries.

Gale Winds and Heavy Seas Batter Florida

Freakish Storm In Daytona Beach Area; One Dead

MIAMI (U)—A freakish late season storm which already has taken one life battered Florida today with gale force winds and heavy seas.

But the 67-foot shrimp boat Ike, which had floundered in the storm for four days, was found safe today anchored 30 miles off the coast at Fort Myers. The Coast Guard plane which found the Ike said the two men aboard apparently were unharmed.

Forecaster Paul Moore said the storm—more of a nor'easter than a tropical storm—"may have lost a little of its punch during the night." At 9:30 a. m. the main force of the storm was in the Daytona Beach area.

But ships and other exposed points along the central Florida coast reported highest winds of about 35 miles an hour. Sunday, lighthouses in the Florida Keys recorded steady winds of 55 miles per hour and gusts up to 70—only 5 miles an hour short of hurricane strength.

"It's drifting northward at 10 miles per hour or less," Moore said. "Florida is going to feel this storm for another day or two."

The drowning victim was identified as Henry Vukoty, 14, of Winter Park, Fla. Joe Taylor of Orlando said sudden winds swept him and Henry off a boat in Lake Poinsett.

Gulf waves swept a landing platform out to sea at Carys Fort lighthouse south of Miami during 70-mile-per-hour winds.

At Tavernier in the upper keys two seawalls dropped into the surging seas.

Belleville Firm To Begin Audit Of County Records

The Belleville auditing firm, Rice and Bedel, will start work Wednesday on an audit of Saline county records, it was announced today by Alvin Gates, member of a committee named by the Saline County Board of Supervisors to select auditors.

The firm was selected by the committee a week ago Saturday and has been approved to do the job.

A new auditor or auditors was requested by the circuit court grand jury going into the affairs of the county. Nine indictments have been returned against County Clerk Don B. Garrison, charging him with embezzlement of county money.

In the past the Peoria auditing firm, Coker and Coker, has audited the county books but there have been definite indications that the grand jury has not been satisfied with this company's job here.

Gates, who with board members Aubrey Giles and Vernon Smith, selected Rice and Bedel, said that two auditors will be on the job here for one week—then as many men as are necessary to complete the work in a hurry will come in. The grand jury is now in recess.

Death Takes Mrs. Hattie Church, 74

Mrs. Hattie Church, 74, widow of Harry Church, died yesterday at 7:04 p. m. at the Harrisburg hospital.

She leaves one son, Charlie Church, Long Beach, Calif., former resident of Harrisburg; one brother, Jesse Yates of Raleigh, and two sisters, Mrs. Carrie Stricklin, 1100 East Walnut, and Mrs. Lula Duffee, 20 North Water; also six grandchildren.

The body will lie in state at the Turner funeral home where services will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. with the Rev. Clayton Humphrey conducting the funeral. Burial will be in Cottage Grove cemetery.

She was a member of the Big Ridge church.

Fred Tanner Is Seriously Injured

Fred Tanner, resident of the Saline Valley community, was seriously injured in a tractor accident on Friday, Oct. 12.

He was rushed to the Barnes hospital the same night and remains in a critical condition, never having regained consciousness.

He is the husband of Mrs. Mary Tanner, employee of the Illinois Public Aid Commission in Harrisburg, and his son, Jimmy, is a student at the Harrisburg Township high school.

No Knowledge of Others In Scandal: Mrs. Hodge

Mother Kills Her Son, Daughter, Swallows Lye, Carbolic Acid

ROCKFORD, Ill. (U)—A mother, upset because her son quit the U. S. Air Force Academy, was in critical condition today after killing her son and daughter and attempting suicide.

Mrs. Ralph Middleton, 45, swallowed lye and carbolic acid Saturday after shooting her son, Thomas, 18, and her daughter, Judy, 12, as they lay in their beds.

State's Atty. Robert R. Canfield said he would seek murder warrants today.

The double murder and suicide attempt was discovered by the father when he came home from work at noon Saturday.

Editors Like Ike; See Close State Contests

President Eisenhower will again carry Illinois in the general election November 6, but the Illinois State ticket is likely to be split at the least—

That is the opinion of more than 50 newspaper editors contacted by a representative of The Daily Register at a meeting of the Illinois Press Association at Decatur last week.

The editors, contacted individually, appeared almost unanimous in their belief that President Eisenhower would carry this state, by a margin slightly below the approximately 400,000 majority the President won in 1952.

But on the state ticket, the Democratic editors ranged from hopeful to highly jubilant about their chances while the Republican editors ranged from hopeful to pessimistic.

The reasoning of all appeared about this way:

In 1952, with Eisenhower winning by 400,000, the state ticket won variously from 200,000 down to a few thousand majorities. In 1954, the margin of victory for the Republicans was much closer.

This year Republicans have Eisenhower to help them again, but his majority is expected to be smaller, and, have the Hodge and other so-called state scandals working against them.

Some Democrats expressed the opinion they are still not convinced that Mayor Daley of Chicago is going all-out for the Democratic state ticket, but others insist recent love feasts in Chicago and Springfield indicate otherwise.

President Eisenhower continues personally popular. There were numerous "Ike" badges of many varieties displayed at Decatur, but only an occasional Stevenson hole-in-the-shoe insignia, and practically no buttons boosting any state candidates.

Deputy Sheriff Jeff Stricklin reported that the West Ledford school, where Carl Beggs is principal, was entered over the weekend and a number of candy bars taken.

Surrenders Meekly in Cave After Fatally Shooting Mother, Sister

GREENSBURG, Pa. (U)—A father was shot twice, in the face and spine.

A nephew of the enraged slayer, George Lutovich Jr., 8, watched the shooting in the kitchen and then went screaming to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Lutovich Sr., who were watching television in the living room. They fled the four-room frame house and called police.

Troopers and deputy sheriffs ringed the home and tossed five tear gas bombs through the windows to draw out the slayer. It was later they learned he had already left the building.

Assistant Westmoreland County District Attorney Joseph Loughran said Lutovich "admitted the shooting in a statement to me." The official said Lutovich "had intended to kill his family."

Loughran said Lutovich "was calm and collected and was coherent" during the questioning. "He told me he was ignored by his family because he was unemployed and he wasn't wanted around the house," the district attorney said.

25 Cars and 100 Persons Join Sunday Auto Tour of Area Spots

Twenty five cars carrying about 100 persons joined the Sunday auto tour leaving Harrisburg yesterday. This included visitors from as far away as Coulterville, Salem and Chicago Heights.

First major stop was at Old Stone Face where camera fans took shots of the gorgeous autumn colors.

After a basket picnic lunch at Thurman's park, Thacker's Gap, John Foster, photographer of the Ozark Tours, introduced Rev. C. M. Everts who conducted Sabbath observance, drawing inspiration from the natural beauties to be enjoyed on the tour.

The caravan then wound its way through the Shawnee National Forest across Seven Fords, now dry, past the Colbert sorghum mill to the heights of Little Garden of the Gods in Mountain township. A visitor from Chicago Heights said that the scenery was much more impressive than similar attractions in northern Illinois.

The caravan next travelled over the hills and hollows of Eagle Valley, enjoying the multicolor foliage to Horseshoe where guide Arch Voight of Du Quoin explained the geological formation of the upheaval at Horseshoe where a folding of the earth's crust millions of years ago left the normally horizontal layers of limestone in a vertical position.

The tour ended amidst the hissing of the steam locomotive at the Illinois Central depot, where the tour was to be continued to Springfield.

toric sites of Equality.

During the tour other guides including D. Purdy, Du Quoin, Pat Collins of Eldorado, and Earl Hancock of Harrisburg, explained the purpose of these tours. It is hoped that each car will return leading other auto tours to scenic attractions of southern Illinois so that more citizens of the area will be able to advertise these tourist attractions to bring vacationers from all parts of the country to spend their recreation budget in southern Illinois.

Pat Collins explained the objections of the newly formed Shawnee Hills Recreation association. Arch Voight outlined the plans of the Ozark tours and Southern Illinois Incorporated to promote better roads such as dustless scenic highways and all weather roads to the most unusual natural attractions.

Earl Hancock announced the geological auto tour leaving Thebes high school at 9 a. m. Saturday, Oct. 20, the Sunday auto tour leaving Carbondale Oct. 21, 9 a. m., Illinois Central depot, and the "all guides tour" leaving from the blacktop highway intersection of Route 13 and the hilltop east of Murphysboro Sunday, Nov. 11.

Eddyville Man Dies in Accident

Delbert Richard, 44, of Eddyville met death in an accident Sunday on the Indiana toll road where he was working near Gary, Ind.

The body is being returned to Eddyville and will be received today at the Palmer and Aly funeral home. No plans have been made.

Rep. Joseph Martin to Speak at GOP Rally At West Frankfort

House Minority Leader Joseph W. Martin Jr. (R-Mass.), nationally known political figure, will be the principal speaker at a GOP rally at West Frankfort high school at 8 p. m. Wednesday.

Martin will speak in behalf of the candidacy of Samuel J. Scott, Republican candidate for Congress from the 25th Congressional District. Scott, former FBI agent and later with the State Department on duty in several foreign countries, will oppose incumbent Kenneth Gray for the congressional seat, Nov. 6.

Martin has served in Congress for 32 years, and has been the permanent chairman of the past several Republican National conventions.

Says She Has No Evidence Not Already Given

Wife of Ex-Auditor And Attorney Confer With Contrakon

SPRINGFIELD (U)—Mrs. Margaret Hodge today denied any knowledge of "other persons" or "political hoodlums" in connection with the million dollar Hodge scandal.

The wife of former Auditor Orville E. Hodge said she was misquoted about "political hoodlums" connected with her husband's admitted embezzlement of state funds, and had no information about the case which she had not already given a grand jury here.

Mrs. Hodge and her attorney, Morris Shenker, conferred with State's Atty. George P. Contrakon and Asst. State's Atty. J. Waldo Ackerman for more than an hour in response to a subpoena served on her at Chicago.

Ackerman said she repeated earlier statements that she knew nothing about the case, and had no idea of "other persons" were involved in the embezzlement.

Ackerman said in answer to questions Mrs. Hodge told him newspaper stories quoted her as saying they should "go after others" to find out more about the scandal were inaccurate. She said, Ackerman reported, that she meant that the newspaper reporters should go elsewhere to seek information.

Future Plans Indefinite
Contrakon reported that Mrs. Hodge said she herself hired Shenker to represent her in an effort to get back some of the assets which she turned over to the state with those of her husband's.

Contrakon said he asked her if she had retained Shenker, or whether others had hired him. Shenker, a widely known St. Louis attorney, also represented reputed downstate gangster Frank (Buster) Wortman and two of his associates when they were called before the grand jury here this past summer.

Ackerman said Mrs. Hodge "co-operated" in answering all questions, and was obviously upset and distraught. At one point she began crying, he said.

After the conference Mrs. Hodge told reporters she was returning to her Granite City home, but that her future plans were indefinite. She and her attorney said they were going to "do everything possible" to get back her assets which were turned over to the state along with Hodge's for restitution of the embezzled money.

Shenker said a suit would be filed in Sangamon County Circuit Court in an effort to regain Mrs. Hodge's assets.

O. E. Wood, Former Resident, Injured

Orville E. Wood, former resident of Harrisburg and salesman for the Carson Dog Food company, was seriously injured in an automobile accident a few days ago in Springfield, Ill.

He received a broken leg, an injured ankle, chest injuries and lost a considerable amount of blood.

He was with his son, Bob, who received a badly cut arm. An elderly man in another car, failing to make a stop, died from injuries in the collision.

Bob has been released from the hospital and Mr. Wood is progressing at the Macon County hospital, Room 2411, at Decatur.

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND by DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
Big Loan To Israel Expedited
To Help New York Senate
Candidate; Jake Javits Prods
Washington On $75,000,000 For Israel; Insurance Figures Show Lower Life Span For Recent Presidents.

WASHINGTON. — Biggest political bonanza of the presidential campaign has been handed en-Congressman Jake Javits of New York, now running for the the Senate, after he came to Washington to speed up a $75,000,000 loan to Israel.

Javits, now the Republican attorney general of New York, is running for the Senate seat of retiring Sen. Herbert Lehman, Democrat. And one day after Mayor Bob Wagner of New York, Javits' opponent, urged that arms be given free to Israel, Javits hied himself to Washington.

There he saw President Eisenhower, urged him to speak in New York. Then he saw Secretary of State John Foster Dulles. After leaving Dulles' office, Javits, who knows his way around Washington, went down to the State Department press room and corralled apathetic reporters who hadn't paid much attention to his conference with the secretary of state.

He told them that he had urged Dulles to grant a $75,000,000 loan to Israel.

Actually this loan has been in the works for some time. The Israel government had applied to the Export-Import Bank for the loan and there has been every expectation that the loan would be granted. Irrigation in Israel is a sound and important investment.

However, thanks to the frantic appeal of Jacob Javits and the GOP desire to win a Senate seat from New York, the loan not only is being announced earlier, but is being announced by Secretary of State Dulles himself, who has little to do with the Export-Import Bank.

At first it was proposed that President Eisenhower announce the loan to Israel when he went to New York to speak for Javits.
This was finally ruled out as too political. Also Dulles has aroused so much bitterness among Jews, so it was considered expedient to let him make the announcement.

Javits surprised New Yorkers by defeating Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., for attorney general in 1954, despite the fact that Averell Harriman and the Democrats carried other state offices. Javits polled a big Jewish vote, even though the Roosevelt family had carried almost 100 per cent of Jewish voters in the past.

This year, however, Wagner, a Catholic, has shown strong support in New York City, which is heavily Jewish. Many New York Jews are disgusted with the Eisenhower administration for its refusal to sell arms to Israel and with Dulles' handling of the Suez question. The outcome of the Javits-Wagner race is by no means certain.

HEALTH AND PRESIDENTS

Louis Bean, the statistician who has predicted so many elections, has applied cold statistics to the health issue and come up with the sober conclusion that President Eisenhower has only one chance in four of surviving a second term.

Bean's analysis is based on a Metropolitan Life Insurance company study 10 years ago of the question, "does the presidency shorten life?" The company found that, despite a general increase in life expectancy, our presidents have been dying at an earlier age than formerly.

The Metropolitan study reported that "the presidents who took office before 1850 outlived their expectation of life on inauguration by an average of 2.9 years.
On the other hand, the presidents who served from 1850 to 1890 fell short of their expectation of life on inauguration by an average of 2.9 years . . .

"The presidents who have held office during the present century have made an even poorer record," continues Metropolitan Life Insurance. "Their length of life since inauguration has been on an average, eight years less than their expectation of life on the time of taking office."

Expanding the Metropolitan study, Bean found: "In view of this downward trend, the statistical equivalent of a president aged 66 would be aged about 70 in Lincoln's day and 85 in Washington's day. This provides a basis for noting how many presidents attaining the equivalent of age 66 and how long they lived beyond it. There have been twelve that fall within the upper age bracket.
Only three of these twelve, namely John Adams, Buchanan, and Taft, lived more than four years beyond the equivalent of 66 years.
The other nine died within one to three years later.

"Consequently," Bean concluded, "the statistical answer to the question of Eisenhower's chances of surviving the next four years is only one in four."

HOOVER AND TRUMAN

Bean did not include in his statistical study the two presidents still living—Hoover, 82, and Truman, 72. However, he also did not take into consideration the heart attack and ileitis operation.
Both Hoover and Truman were in far better health than Ike at age 66.

"In spite of the fact that life expectancy has been on the increase," Bean's analysis declares,
"there has been a decline in the age at which our presidents have died. Among the first four presidents, one, John Adams, lived to 90. Among the next four one,
John Q. Adams, lived to 80.
Among the next eight, only Buchanan lived to 77. And since Lincoln, only one, Taft, lived to 72.
Setting aside the two living exceptions to this rule (Hoover and Truman), the record shows that the average at which our presidents have died has declined from about 80 to about 65."

FURIOUS FRENCH

The French are so sizzling mad at Secretary Dulles for his unredictable performance on the Suez Canal crisis that they could fry.
Not since the end of the war has there been such anti-American feeling in France as there is now.

Premier Mollet not only believes Dulles has betrayed France but has sided with Egypt—now considered France's mortal enemy because it is openly helping rebels shoot French soldiers in Algeria.

The French cabinet is so furious it has vowed to oppose Egypt sin-glehandedly if necessary, no matter what the United States does. This may be a bluff, but the American embassy is genuinely alarmed and has warned the State Department the French will not give up as they did in Indochina.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—
Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.
In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.
Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute.
This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H. At your druggist. Money back guarantee.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D. D.
Written for NEA Service

In our human way, we stand in awe of the author of a "best seller" which remains among the top dozen of the most popular books for six months. If perchance this popularity continues for a year or two years, we think of the book as phenomenal. We all want to read the book. In fact, we decide that we must own a copy of our own. We want to read it several times and quote from it.

The Bible has led the sale of all books for so many months—for so many years—yes, for so many decades, that it does not appear on the list. The Bible is taken for granted because it never drops into second place.

The Bible is "Timeless and Eternal." This is the theme for National Bible Week which has been established by proclamation and decree all over America. The purpose of this special week is not to increase sales, nor to promote a benevolent campaign. It is to remind us that the "Timeless and Eternal" Book is worth reading every day.

Let us read and find new help in the Bible every day this week. We shall not stop reading and applying the scriptures later if we reinforce our habit this week. We must make the Bible our own living book of reference.

Annual Convention Of Catholic Women Held at Herrin

The annual convention of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women was held at St. Mary's parish in Herrin Wednesday, Oct. 10.

His Excellency Bishop Albert R. Zuroweste, D. D., was the principal speaker at the afternoon session and he emphasized the fact that the Catholic parents have a serious obligation in regard to the education of their children in this age of growing indifference and that the Ten Commandments are still in force.

Mass at 9 o'clock in St. Mary's church opened the day's proceedings, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Robert DeGasperi, Dean, of Herrin the celebrant.

The general business session was held in the school gymnasium. Mrs. Henry Urke of Duplo, the diocesan president, presiding. The guests were welcomed by Rt. Rev. Msgr. Robert DeGasperi with response by Rev. John T. Fournie of East St. Louis, diocesan moderator. Minutes were read by Mrs. John Klein of Harrisburg, diocesan recording secretary. The election committee reported that all the officers had been re-elected for another year.

At 10:45 five workshops got underway under the direction of diocesan chairmen: Co-operating with the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, Family and Parent Education, Foreign Relief, Co-operating with Catholic Charities and Rural Life. The five workshops in the afternoon were on youth, spiritual development, organization and development, libraries and literature and public relations.

Mrs. G. P. Gannon, Rice Lake, Wis., the national chairman of the Parent-Educator section of the

Panel to Discuss Photojournalism At SIU Workshop

CARBONDALE, Ill. — A panel of four southern Illinois newspapermen will discuss "The Future of Weekly Photojournalism" during Southern Illinois University's first annual Photo Workshop for Weekly Newspapers Friday and Saturday, Oct. 19-20 at Giant City State park.

Scheduled for 8 p. m. Friday at the park lodge, the panel discussion will feature Charles Cox, Altamont News; Curtis Small, Harrisburg Daily Register; John Temple, Wayne County Record, Fairfield, and Robert Voris, Waterloo Republican. Voris will speak again Saturday on "What Do Your Photos Cost?"

Another attraction for workshop participants will be press passes to the SIU-Eastern Michigan College football game Saturday night.

"The photographers will have the opportunity to run the sidelines if they want to shoot the game," said Dr. William C. Horrell, workshop director. Horrell heads the SIU Photo Service.

The two-day meeting also will include a picture-taking session at Makanda; speakers on picture editing, writing outlines, print selection, and camera and darkroom techniques, and informal discussions.

The workshop fee, including meals and lodging, is $20. Enrollment will be limited to 30 persons. Horrell said.

Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, spoke at the afternoon session on "Teaching Religion in the Home."

She stressed the role of the lay apostolate and advised sacrifice in the revised order of the lives of young married couples in order to properly rear their children.

Three hundred eighty seven women and 30 priests were present and attending from Harrisburg were Mrs. Ida Mitsdarffer, Mrs. Dave Evans, Mrs. Estelle Thorpe, Mrs. J. J. Klein and Mrs. C. A. E. Hauptmann.

Luncheon was served at noon by the ladies of St. Mary's parish and closing was with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament in the church at 3:15.

Eisenhower Gives Go-Ahead for A-Merchant Ship

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower today signaled full speed ahead on construction of the world's first atomic-powered merchant ship.

The President gave the project a final go-ahead at a White House ceremony attended by top atomic and merchant marine officials. He termed nuclear power for merchant ships "one of the most promising applications of nuclear energy," and ordered officials to get the ship on the ways as soon as possible.

Construction is expected to begin next year.

Wife of Yugoslav Consul Arrested For Shoplifting

SAN FRANCISCO (U)—District Attorney Thomas C. Lynch was undecided today whether to prosecute the wife of the Yugoslavian vice consul on shoplifting charges.

Mrs. Sonje Juznic, 26, pretty wife of Vice Consul Stislav Juznic, appears in municipal court today to answer charges of shoplifting merchandise worth $26.75.

Lynch said he will make a decision whether to press charges against Mrs. Juznic after studying all available information on the case, including an 1881 Treaty cited by the Yugoslavian consul general, Branko Karadzole.

Mrs. Juznic denied stealing anything and said it was "a mistake... a terrible mistake."

Mrs. Juznic was arrested and held in city prison for five hours Saturday following her arrest by a store detective outside the J. C. Penney department store.

The detective told police she followed Mrs. Juznic through three floors of the store and watched her put into a shopping bag two sheets, two pairs of men's socks, five towels, one woman's sweater and five zippers—without paying for any of them.

When she was halted, Mrs. Juznic threw the shopping bag in the detective's face and attempted to flee, the detective said.

Her husband denied she stole anything.

"She paid for everything," he said. "The trouble is, she never keeps sales slips. She had other purchases from several stores in her bag but she always throws the sales slips away."

STOCKS INCREASE ON INCREASED VOLUME

NEW YORK (U)—Stocks continued their advance today on increased volume.

First Equipment Arrives for New Plant At West Frankfort

WEST FRANKFORT, Ill. (U)—The first shipment of equipment has arrived for the Jolan Zipper Corp. plant.

The firm, which expects to have 150 employees within six months after it begins operation, will occupy the former Coca-Cola building which it has bought on a lease-purchase agreement. George Katzenberg, president of Jolan, said the firm will manufacture and assemble complete zippers at the plant. Katzenberg also owns the Streamline Manufacturing Co., a garment plant in West Frankfort.

Cairo Presbyterian Training Schools At Anna and Omaha

The fall district training schools of the Cairo Presbyterian are scheduled to meet Tuesday, Oct. 16, at Anna for the West District and Thursday, Oct. 18, at Omaha for the East District.

The meetings will convene at 9:15 a. m. Each woman is to take a "sack" lunch. Coffee and dessert will be served by the hostess church.

Those planning to go are asked to call Mrs. LeRoy Reese for transportation arrangements.

Auto, Truck Collide

An auto driven by Sylvia Kimbro of Harrisburg Route 1, going west on West Elm, figured in a collision with a truck belonging to Samuel Pickens of West Frankfort at 7:40 a. m. today. City policeman John Dunn said the truck had backed into an alley behind the Sears store with the front part of the vehicle in the street.

Find What You Need In Register Classifieds

"Could have sold a half dozen," that's what two advertisers of used bathroom and sink fixtures said about their Register for sale ads last week.

A bundle of laundry stolen from the automobile of Arthur "Pat" Patterson was discarded when the thieves found out their "loot" was merely sheets and towels. They dropped it! Mrs. J. C. Wilson found it, put a "Found ad" in and Pat has his linens back.

From lily bulbs to grand pianos, from toy terriers to St. Bernards, from sales executive to farm hands, you will find them in Daily Register classifieds.

10 Scientists Back Adlai Plea

PASADENA, Calif. (U)—Ten top California Institute of Technology scientists, who warn that "time is running out," today backed Adlai Stevenson's proposal to seek an end to H-bomb tests.

The scientists, including Dr. Carl D. Anderson, Nobel laureate in physics for 1934, issued a joint statement Sunday supporting Stevenson's proposal and taking issue with President Eisenhower's expression of regret that the question had become a campaign issue.

"... After 10 years of negotiation, the world has no other guarantee of survival than the tenuous hope that no nation will pull the trigger for fear of committing national suicide," they warned.

"Time is running out, with an implacability that we ignore at our peril."

They said that Stevenson's proposal for the United States to take the lead in seeking an end to H-bomb tests "might be a useful way to get the negotiations out of the deadlock stage."

Mrs. Helen Choisser Wright, Formerly Of Eldorado, Dies

Mrs. Helen Choisser Wright, 84, of Harrisburg, Pa., died at her residence there this morning at 3 o'clock.

She was the oldest child of the late Joseph and Vienna Choisser. She grew up in Eldorado and was married to the late E. B. Wright at the age of 18 years. Mr. Wright was engaged in the men's clothing business in Eldorado in the building now occupied by the Fashion Shop and Adams Insurance agency. He sold his business in 1914 and went to Idaho to work for the J. C. Penney Co. After a number of years there he was transferred to Warren, Pa. Upon retiring from the Penney organization he spent another year out west before locating permanently in Harrisburg, Pa.

Mrs. Wright is survived by the following: Two sons, Don of Lompoc, Calif., and Paul of Harrisburg, Pa.; two daughters, Ellen and Emily Wright, both of Harrisburg, Pa.; a brother, P. T. Choisser, in Eldorado, one grandchild one great-grandchild.

She was an aunt of the following: Eugene, Ralph and Joe Choisser of Eldorado, Dr. John Choisser, Coral Gables, Fla., Mrs. Madelyn Holdaway, Eldorado, and Mrs. Ruth Valtier, Coral Gables, Fla.

The body will arrive in Eldorado late Tuesday afternoon and will be taken to the Martin funeral home to lie in state. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

More Than 250,000 Women, 62 to 65, Apply For Social Security

WASHINGTON (U)—More than 250,000 women between the ages of 62 and 65 have applied so far for new social security benefits that start Nov. 1.

Government officials said Sunday that the beneficiaries' first checks will be mailed at the end of November and should start reaching them about Dec. 3.

Congress last summer lowered from 65 to 62 the age at which women can begin drawing retirement benefits. The amendment to the social security law becomes effective Nov. 1.

President of Marion Co. Dental Society Dies

CENTRALIA, Ill. (U)—The president of the Marion County Dental Assn. died Sunday.

Funeral services were scheduled Wednesday for J. Newland Burge, 44, who had been a dentist in Centralia since 1935.

Bit Dog First, Boy, 3, Says

FT. LEE, N. J. (U)—A physician treating 3-year-old Garry Remore for a dog bite on the cheek asked the boy how he was bitten.

"I bit the dog first," replied Garry.

Paschen Denies Deposits Awarded For Contributions

CHICAGO (U)—Cook County Treasurer Herbert C. Paschen testified today that no bank ever was denied deposits of county funds for failure to contribute to the "welfare fund" set up for his employees.

Paschen, forced to withdraw as the Democratic candidate for governor when alleged irregularities were disclosed in operation of the fund, testified before the Senate Banking Committee.

The committee, headed by Acting Chairman John S. Sparkman, is investigating banking practices in connection with the fraudulent check scandal which sent State Auditor Orville Hodge to jail.

Paschen said the welfare fund was a continuation of a practice that had existed under his two Republican predecessors in the office of county treasurer.

He said the fund was used to buy flowers for sick employees, to help the widows of employees who have died and for similar purposes. He said low-paid employees frequently are obligated to buy tickets to political picnics and the like staged by their ward organizations, and the fund was used to help them meet these commitments.

Paschen testified that the fund collected $14,500 his first year in office and $14,800 the next year, and that it spent "about half" that sum.

Open House at Eldorado Art Center Oct. 17

Open house will be held at the Eldorado Art Center Wednesday, Oct. 17, from 4 to 9 p. m. It has been announced by John Brown, director.

Pottery demonstrations will be held and paintings and pottery will be exhibited. Skits will be presented by members of the Community Players and light refreshments will be served throughout the evening.

Workshops in pottery and painting are now in session and anyone interested may register for one or both art workshops.

There is no charge for instruction, as the Art Center is a community project.

Workshop hours—Pottery: Monday and Friday 6:30 to 8:30 p. m.; Tuesday and Thursday, 1 to 3 p. m.; Wednesday and Friday, 1 to 3 p. m.; oil painting: Monday and Friday, 6:30 to 8:30 p. m.

Belford Rites Held at Golconda

Funeral services for Otto Belford, 75, well known Pope county farmer who was found dead in his bed at 6 a. m. Saturday by his wife, Sarah, were held today at 2 p. m. at the Golconda Methodist church. Rev. L. R. Bowles, pastor of the Golconda Baptist church, officiated and burial was in the Odd Fellows cemetery.

His home was on Golconda RFD 1.

Besides his wife, Sarah, he leaves four daughters: Mrs. Audrey Brown, Mrs. Irene Yewell, Mrs. Mary Davis and Mrs. Ida Roberts, all of Golconda; and two sons, Alvis of Golconda, and Lloyd of Joliet.

Premier Says Israel Will Not Start War

JERUSALEM (U)—Premier David Ben-Gurion said today Israel would "never" start a preventive or any other kind of war in the Middle East.

In an hour-long speech to the Knesset—Israel's parliament—Ben-Gurion said Egypt's arms deal with Communist Czechoslovakia had been "the greatest single factor contributing to tension in this area."

The second factor in growing Mideast tension, he said, was the Suez Canal crisis, which he charged was "also caused by Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser."

Boy, 15, Admits Ice Pick Slaying

CHICAGO (U)—A 15-year-old escapee from a training school for boys has admitted the ice-pick slaying of a parochial school librarian because he "needed money."

Kelly Bennett, who has a record of 10 or more arrests, confessed Sunday that he fatally stabbed Miss Mildred Hayes, 45, when she resisted a purse-snatching attempt. He said he found only $6.65 in the woman's purse.

REVIVAL IN PROGRESS

A revival is now in progress at the First Pentecostal church on the corner of Lincoln and Locust streets in Eldorado. Margaret Walker is the evangelist. There is singing and preaching each evening. Everyone welcome.

Higher, but Milder

Great Britain is in higher latitude than the United States, but its climate is much milder because of the influence of the Gulf Stream.

"Master of Masters"

Bach is called the "Master of Masters" because his compositions inspired so many of the famous musicians who followed him, including Mozart, Beethoven and Chopin.

Oklahoma, Michigan State Show Power in Grid Wins; Next Opponents for Irish

By United Press
Oklahoma or Michigan State? Which team do you think will wind up as college football's national champion this season?
Well, don't let the rent money or either team until at least two more weeks, or until the results are in on their forthcoming games with Notre Dame.
Once the kings of college football themselves, the Irish have gotten off to one of their worst seasons in many years and now face the nightmarish task of playing Michigan State and Oklahoma on successive Saturdays.
Duffy Daugherty's speedy Spartans get first crack at Notre Dame next Saturday at South Bend, Ind., and then the Irish must entertain Bud Wilkinson's "shut-out kids" from Oklahoma the following week end.

Considering their recent form, the Irish won't stand a chance against either Michigan State or Oklahoma, but the results of these games should provide the experts with a yardstick for future reference.

Both Meet K-State

Oklahoma and Michigan State play only one other mutual opponent this season—Kansas State. The Sooners roared to a 66-0 victory over K-State in their second game of the season, while the Spartans meet the Wildcats at East Lansing, Mich., Nov. 24.

At this stage of the season, it is almost impossible to choose between Oklahoma and Michigan State, although the Sooners would appear to have a slight edge statistically speaking. Including last Saturday's 45-0 rout of Texas, Oklahoma now has rolled up 147 points in posting three straight shutouts.

Michigan State has scored 83 points and given up 13 in its first three games, including its most recent 53-6 romp over Indiana. However, one of the games was against Michigan, a team rated much stronger than any of Oklahoma's early-season opponents.

In making Texas their 33rd consecutive victim, the Sooners were led by Tommy McDonald and Clendon Thomas, who scored three touchdowns each. Michigan State uncovered a strong aerial game to match its vaunted running attack against Indiana, completing 10 of 12 passes for 204 yards and three touchdowns.

Michigan, meanwhile, bounced back from its loss to Michigan State by capitalizing on six Army fumbles to beat the Cadets, 48-14. It was the most points ever scored against an Earl Blaik-coached Army team.

Big Powers—Crumble

It was a "Black Saturday" also for such perennial powers as Navy, Notre Dame, West Virginia and Texas A&M. Quarterback Gene Newton's two touchdowns passed helped Tulane upset Navy, 21-6; Purdue handed Notre Dame its second defeat in three games, 28-14; Jim Brown's running once again carried Syracuse to a 27-0 triumph over West Virginia, and underdog Houston held Texas A&M to a 14-14 tie.

Other top-ranked teams bowled over their opponents with savage displays of power. Tennessee did not even star tailback Johnny Majors in blasting Chattanooga, 42-20; Ohio State ripped Illinois, 26-6; halfback Ken Wineburg tallied twice as Texas Christian downed Alabama, 23-6; Georgia Tech ramblod to a 39-7 victory over LSU and Mississippi blanked Vanderbilt, 16-0.

Lions, Cardinals Top National League Races

By United Press
The Detroit Lions and Chicago Cardinals topped the National Football League's division races today with 3-0 records while the champion Cleveland Browns languished in the worst scoring slump of their 11-year history.

The Lions, the Western Division's only perfect record team, fought off a rip-roaring rally to edge the Los Angeles Rams Sunday, 24-21. The Cardinals, with Ollie Matson racing 105 yards with a kickoff, remained the Eastern race's only undefeated club by thumping the Washington Redskins, 31-3.

Washington was the only team without a victory at the one-quarter mark in the campaign, but Coach Paul Brown's defending league champions were in almost as much trouble. The Browns suffered their second loss in three starts when they took a 21-9 whipping from the New York Giants.

In 1954 Cleveland had a 1-2 record at the start and went on to sweep the Eastern Division and league titles. But the Browns scored 68 points in their first three games that season, while this year they have made only 30, an all-time low for Brown's fabulous club at this stage in a campaign.

The Chicago Bears crushed the San Francisco Forty-Niners, 31-7 and the Green Bay Packers defeated the Baltimore Colts, 38-33; while the Philadelphia Eagles downed the Pittsburgh Steelers, 35 to 21, in Sunday's other contests.

Tuberculosis Tax Law Provides Care for Patients

The Tuberculosis Tax Law which has been in existence in Saline county for the past 18 years is to be voted on again at the election on Nov. 6. It provides that counties which do not have a sanitarium of their own may hospitalize their patients in public or private tuberculosis hospitals in other counties in Illinois. At the present time Saline county has ten patients in Mt. Vernon T. B. Sanitarium. Several patients go for outpatient checkups which helps to keep tuberculosis under control.

Tuberculosis is curable, the Saline County Tuberculosis Sanitarium Board points out. The Tuberculosis Tax Law finances the necessary care and treatment to cure the disease by enabling any tuberculosis resident of the county to go to a sanitarium. The Tuberculosis Sanitarium is an entire hospital in itself, that has been planned for one purpose—to give TB patients the best of care.

Ninety-six per cent of tuberculosis patients are unable to finance their own hospitalization and treatment. The Tuberculosis Tax Law provides this care for everyone in the county regardless of the patient's financial status, race, creed or color.

A tuberculosis sanitarium provides the best means of curing the disease. It gives each patient the comfortable, quiet, steady rest in bed that he must have to make him well. It keeps the patient from spreading tuberculosis germs to his family or his friends.

If a patient needs surgical care to give his sick lung extra rest, the tuberculosis hospital is the place where it can be done.

THE NEW LINCOLN, featuring Quadra-Lites, offers a four-door hardtop, the Landau, shown above) in its expanded 1957 line of seven models. The Quadra-Lites are four road lights in vertical pairs. Also available are a new concealed-pillar sedan, hardtop coupe and convertible. The new Lincoln is slightly longer than last year's styling-award winner and has increased horsepower, added power assists and engineering changes. It will be on display Tuesday at the Wiley Motor Company, local dealer.

SIU Defeats Eastern, 33-0

Sparked by Carver Shannon, sophomore halfback, Southern Illinois University won over Eastern Illinois Saturday afternoon, 33-0. The game was played on the loser's gridiron.

Shannon, 172-pound speedster from Corinth, Miss., romped for four TDs in leading SIU to its second victory of the season and first in IAC play.

Included in Shannon's scoring were runs of 32, 67 and 65 yards. SIU rolled up 305 yards rushing and held Eastern to a scant 58 yards.

Next Saturday SIU hosts Eastern Michigan, the game to start at 8 p. m.

Proclaims Oct. 27

Southern Illinois Day

CARBONDALE, Ill. — William Stratton has proclaimed Saturday, Oct. 27, as "Southern Illinois Day" in honor of the Southern Illinois University homecoming at Carbondale. The three-day celebration will end that day.

XXV
They carried the stretcher into the elevator, set it down as the floor filled with other patients. At the third floor, they carried the old man into the corridor, where an interne studied the white tag tied to the man's coat.

He gestured wearily with his arm. "Take him to the waiting room." He walked on to the next patient coming from the elevator. "Hey, what's the waiting room?" John asked his companion as they moved down the hallway.

"Well, old Pop here has had it," came the reply. "You see, he's in a bad way. Banged-up skull, lost so much blood, and a shock case like this, he's gonna' need a lot of fresh blood, and a lot of attention. Now he's... just a minute, turn in that doorway. Right over there."

They swung the stretcher around and entered a large, dimly-lit room. The stench was gagging. They lowered the stretcher to the floor. Two burly attendants in blood-stained smocks moved up wordlessly, bent down and gently lifted the old man from the stretcher. They placed him on a blanket, then covered the frail form with a second blanket.

"Okay," one said. John's companion picked up the stretcher and motioned for John to follow him from the room.

Clumping down the stairs, John said, "You started to tell me what the waiting room was for."

"Yeah. Well, like I said, the old man, he's pretty far gone. A case like him needs a lot of attention, blood, and so forth. And maybe," he pointed a finger for emphasis, "the old boy ain't gonna' make it. Y'know, his chances ain't very good."

"These docs, they got their hands pretty full. They ain't got as much blood as they'd like. So..." he shrugged his shoulders, "somebody has to make a decision as to who gets the blood. With Pop being as old as he is, and his chances being so bad, the docs figure somebody else oughta' get the blood instead."

"You mean..."

"Yeah," he nodded, "the waiting room. They stick 'em in there to croak."

New 1957 Lincoln Will Be on Display Tomorrow; Features Quadra-Lights

The distinctly new 1957 Lincoln, with Quadra-Lites, will be unveiled in dealers' showrooms Oct. 16.

Four road lights in vertical pairs, the Quadra-Lites are housed in oval-shaped, chrome-rimmed settings. The auxiliary road lamps, positioned below the headlights, are optional equipment and may be used either alone or with the headlights.

The new 1957 Lincoln will be on display tomorrow at the Wiley Motor company, local dealer.

Massive parking lights and directional signals are coupled horizontally below the Quadra-Lites, enhancing the beauty of the newly-designed bumper and grille.

The new car is slightly longer than last year's, which brought Lincoln stylists the highest award of the Industrial Designers Institute.

Graceful body lines are attained by stylized chrome side moulding, simulated air scoop, and sweeping rear-quarter panels extend outward toward pyramid taillights. Exhaust outlets, hidden under wrap-around bumpers, large back-up lights and the Lincoln star new trunk emblem complement the rear look.

Also prominent in the new Lincoln line are a new four-door hardtop and concealed-pillar sedan in both the Premiere and Capri series, increased horsepower and added luxury accessories. The four-door hardtop, the "Landau," expands the Lincoln line to seven models, two more than last year.

Lincoln sedans have slim pillars which are concealed when the windows are raised, presenting the appearance of a four-door hardtop.

Horsepower and torque have been increased as the result of a higher compression ratio of 10 to 1, reshaped pistons, and a redesigned combustion chamber. The horsepower rating moves up to 300 at 4800 rpm and torque to 415 foot pounds at 3000 rpm.

The Premiere has as standard equipment, power steering, power seats, power windows and power brakes. Power steering and power brakes are also standard equipment on Capri models.
